PREFACE

The destruction of almost all the court records of Dinwiddie and Prince George counties, Virginia, has made genealogical research in this area difficult. The assembling of these few extant marriage records by the Projects Committee of the Virginia Genealogical Society in the first of a projected series of volumes relating to the burned counties, is an event of import. The members of the Committee, Mrs. Emma R. Matheny, Chairman, Mrs. Joyce H. Lindsay, Mrs. Isobel B. Woodson, and Mrs. Helen K. Yates, are setting an example for the Society to follow.

Dinwiddie County, although formed from Prince George in 1752, has no court records prior to the fire of 1833 other than one Order Book 1789-91 and a Surveyors' Plat Book 1755-1865. The parent county of Prince George has little more preserved before 1865 - Deeds and Wills 1713-28, 1759-60, 1787-92; Inventories and accounts 1835-41; Deeds 1842-46, 1851-58; Court orders 1714-20, 1737-40, 1811-14; and Surveyors' records 1711-24, 1794-1879.

The Rev. Dr. John Cameron was rector of Bristol Parish, the eastern parish of Dinwiddie County, from 1784 until January 1794. In this period he began a register listing the marriages he performed, which he continued while rector of Nottoway Parish, Southampton County, 1794-96, and of Cumberland Parish, Lunenburg County, until his death in 1815. Earlier records of Bristol Parish were printed in The Vestry Book and Register of Bristol Parish, Virginia, 1720-1789 (Richmond, Va., 1898), transcribed by Churchill Gibson Chamberlayne.

The Register of Bath Parish, the western parish of Dinwiddie County, 1827-97, which also includes records of Saint Andrew's Parish, Brunswick County, contains marriages for the years 1826-37 and 1846-55, as well as baptisms and burials.

It is fortunate that these two manuscript volumes have been preserved. A few other Dinwiddie County marriages recorded in the Deed and Order Books have been added to help complete the record. These and some lists such as that of fourteen Dinwiddie marriages, 1818-19, published in The Virginia Magazine of History and Biography, volume 50, page 67, represent virtually all public marriage records for this area.

Also included are 161 marriage bonds of Prince George County which somehow survived the destruction of that county's records and are preserved at the Court House at Prince George.

Many will find members of their family in this volume. It is for them that the Virginia Genealogical Society was established and to help them that its efforts are directed.
